

Bastrop County Council 4-H meeting
September 7, 2021
Bastrop Show Barn

The meeting was called to order by President Weston Bauer at 6 p.m. Pledges were said. Landry and Brady Masur will find an inspiring quote for the next meeting. Ellen Carrol said the current balance is $12,007.21. Four clubs were present: Bastrop, Rockne, Bastrop Bullseyes, and Loblolly. Members signed in on the attendance sheet. There was no unfinished business. Revisions to the bylaws were listed. Landry Masur made a motion to table the discussion for a 4-H prince on the table. Luke Bauer seconded. It was recommend to ask each club if they would like a 4-H prince. Our One day 4-h project will be collecting supplies for the animal shelter. A scholarship for Miss. Ashley has been approved. Luke Bauer made the motion Landry Masur seconded. A committee will decide the amount. Elgin has become a county show but you need to read the rules for joining ELSA. BALSFA now has some invitational contests open to the county members should view show rules. Pecan Auxiliary and Bastrop Area Livestock Show plan to have raffle tickets available soon. Upcoming dates were listed. Ellen Carrol made the motion to adjourn, Sarah Masur seconded.

Respectfully submitted, Landry Masur