

Bastrop County Council 4-H meeting
October 5, 2021
Bastrop Show Barn

The meeting was called to order by President Weston Bauer at 6 p.m. Pledges were said. Ellen Carrol said the current balance is $21,040.26. Five clubs were present: Bastrop, Rockne, Bastrop Bullseyes, Smithville, and Loblolly. Members signed in on the attendance sheet. Landry Masur moved to remove the topic about adding a 4-H prince from the table, Alexis Woods seconded. Landry Masur moved to accept this into the bylaws. Alexis Woods seconded. The motion passes. Clubs were asked to bring ideas for what the 4-H prince should wear when representing 4-H at functions. One Day 4-H animal shelter donations should be taken to the CEO. Under news business, The commissioner's court presentation was mentioned. Lambs, goats, and heifers will be validated at the Bastrop show barn on October 26 for state. Swine will be validated for state at the Smithville High School Ag Shop on November 16. Youth will need a time slot for both validations. Landry Masur moved to table club officer training, Sarah Masur seconded. The idea for a 4-H dance was tabled by Brady Masur and Landry Masur seconding. Upcoming event dates were listed. Alexis Woods made the motion to adjourn and Ellen Carrol seconded.

Respectfully submitted, Landry Masur