

The Bastrop County Council meeting on December 7, 2021, was called to order by President Weston Bauer at 6 p.m. Officers led the pledges. Secretary Landry Masur read the minutes from October. Treasurer Ellen Carroll reported a balance of $20,883.98. Bastrop, Bastrop Bulls-eyes, Rockne, and Loblolly clubs were present. Under old business, the 4-H polo shirts were discussed. It was decided that each club would nominate a person for the 4-H prince and there would be a sash and jacket for the prince. Landry Masur moved to accept these changes and Brady Masur seconded. The motion passed.

Under new business, Ellen Carrol moved to table summer activities and Sarah Masur seconded. The motion passed. Luke moved that we create a showmanship clinic for lambs and rabbits. Paisley seconded. Dates have not been decided. Rodeo Austin and San Antonio school tours were mentioned. Sarah Masur moved to remove the topic of a 4-H Dance from the table and Brady seconded. Ellen Carroll moved to create a 4-H Dance committee. Brady seconded. Landry and Ellen volunteered to be co-chairs. Upcoming event dates were mentioned. Sarah made the motion to adjourn and Ellen seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 6:30 p.m. Recreation was held after the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Landry Masur
